Matt's Minute

Watching and reading about the violent and deathly takeover of the U.S. Capital was a surreal moment for many of us, and one of the darkest moments in our nation's history. I am proud to be part of a denomination called the United Church of Christ whose leadership gave a swift and clear stance on the events of that day. Here are some important thoughts from our denomination's General Minister & President, The Reverend John Dorhauer and his leadership staff:

Our faith calls us to acts of love, kindness and compassion. Our faith reminds us that the power of God aligns with the poor and the abandoned, the weak and the hungry, the oppressed and the marginalized. We call on all people of faith and goodwill to use what we saw on Jan. 6, 2021, as a call to justice and a reminder of what happens when evil goes unchallenged.

Our faithful response to this most recent act of white terrorism and insurrection will be to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, free the oppressed, welcome the stranger, love the neighbor, and fill the whole world with the love of our blessed redeemer, Jesus. And, as we continue to do so, we will walk in the courage to denounce and dismantle theologies and systems of oppression and hatred, replacing them with theologies of freedom, peace, justice and love.

We invite all members of the United Church of Christ to a period of sober reflection and fervent prayer. We further urge brave conversation and a willingness to break down the barriers between us and within our communities. May we as Church offer a clear witness of the bold love, honest confession, and simple humility required of us all in this moment. In the words of the prophet Micah, let us go forth to “do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.”

I encourage us all to denounce the violence and evil that took place on January 6th, and to pray and work towards national unity and healing.

Rev. Matthew Hunt
